III. Your Essay is to respond to one of the following:

Share your thoughts and observations on what it means to New Jersey to have women constitute the majority of the members of its Supreme Court.

OR

With each passing year, in-house counsel continue to increase the volume on their demand for law firms to staff their matters with diverse teams of attorneys where, among other things, women are placed in a leadership role, not merely relegated to "second chair" or back office work. What unique qualities and perspectives do you think women bring to the practice of law that make them an integral part of any legal services team?

Please use separate pages for your essay. Please only answer one of the questions.

Your essay is not to exceed 1500 words and will be published in our Gala Journal. We reserve the right to edit all essays for publication.
