STAFF ATTORNEY

The Community Health Law Project seeks an experienced licensed Attorney for its Monmouth/Ocean office located in Neptune/Toms River. Bilingual strongly preferred, for representation of low-income persons with disabilities and chronic health conditions. Practice areas include evictions and other housing matters, public entitlements, family matters, consumer issues, and guardianships, among other civil law matters. Experience in the area of immigration law is also a plus. Salary negotiable.

Send resume and references to Rebecca Kolas, Esq., Managing Attorney, Community Health Law Project, 3301 Rt. 66, Bldg. C, Suite 130, Neptune, NJ 07753-2705 or via e-mail to RKolas@chlp.org.
