

Tuesday, February 14th

12:30-1:45

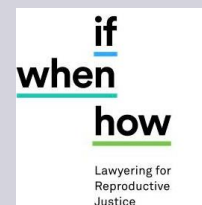

Labor of Love:

Reproductive Rights, Health, and Justice in NJ

Please join NJWLA's Women's Leadership and Reproductive Rights committees along with supporting organizations for a Zoom Panel Discussion

CENTER for
REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS

In the wake of Roe v. Wade's demise, abortion access across the nation has been thrown into chaos. With the enactment of laws in various jurisdictions that ban and/or severely restrict abortion, we invite you to join this conversation as we explore the shifting landscape of reproductive health, rights and justice while identifying meaningful ways for legal professionals to effectively advocate for bodily autonomy.

Meet Our Panelists:

Diamond J. Brown, Counsel, Lawyers Network,
Center for Reproductive Rights

Dr. Kristyn Brandi, Physicians for Reproductive Health

Alejandra Sorto, Campaign Strategist for the ACLU-NJ

Melissa Torres-Montoya, Senior Lawyer Engagement Manager at
If/When/How

Moderated By:

Penny M. Venetis, Director, International Human Rights Clinic
Distinguished Clinical Professor of Law, Rutgers Law School

RESERVE YOUR SPOT
REGISTER HERE

FOR THIS IMPORTANT CONVERSATION

This program has been approved by the Board on Continuing Legal Education for the Supreme Court of New Jersey for 1.2 hours of total NJ CLE credit.