

NJWLA Women's Power Hour I A Members Only Event

This intimate networking event is a fantastic opportunity to expand your network by building relationships with other members of NJWLA right from the comfort of your own home or office. The 2,000 women of NJWLA are an incredible resource, and we have the power within our own organization to accomplish whatever we seek. As a participant, you will have a genuine opportunity to share who you are and your magic in the world and get to know other members in a small setting. Participants will also leave with a skill to help them better achieve their goals by building a deeper connection with others.

Hosts Carole Lynn Nowicki, NJWLA Co-General Counsel, and Catherine Kelly, Co-Director of NJLWA's Endorsement's Committee, have prepared a fun, energetic, and interactive 1-hour Zoom event that will give NJWLA members a real opportunity to connect, build lasting relationships, and learn a unique technique. And it's free!
