

You Are Invited

Race & Jury: How Bias and Prejudice Impact the Jury System

Panelists will explore issues concerning race, bias, and diversity in connection with jury trials including a discussion on New Jersey's new jury selection rules/attorney voir dire coming out of State v. Andujar and the commission convened by the New Jersey Supreme Court.

Wednesday, October 26, 2022

5:30 – 8:00 p.m. ET

Seton Hall University School of Law

One Newark Center
Newark, NJ 07102

Reception following panel, space is limited. Registration is free.

RSVP

Please note that as we plan for this in-person event, we will continue to follow COVID-19 CDC and local guidance and mandates.

Speakers Include

Honorable Susan D. Wigenton
United States District Court Judge for the District of New Jersey

Philip R. Sellinger
United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey

Karen Thompson
Senior Staff Attorney, ACLU-NJ

Dr. Maithilee Pathak
Partner, R&D Strategic Solutions

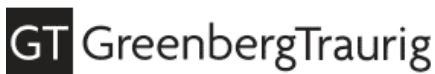

Ian Marx
Shareholder, Greenberg Traurig
(Moderator)

Hosted By

Sponsored By

Greenberg Traurig will seek NY, NJ and PA CLE for this event. CLE is currently pending.

Greenberg Traurig, LLP | www.gtlaw.com

EMAIL PREFERENCES CENTER:
Manage your interest area subscriptions.
Opt out of communications from Greenberg Traurig, LLP.

